

I listen to KLOVE on 99.5 while at home and on it's sister stations while traveling through the valley. I receive daily encouragement, hope and peace because of this station. The effect on my community and valley of losing KLOVE would be disastrous. It is in the public's best interest to continue to have KLOVE broadcast so that thousands can receive positive, life changing, hope giving messages and songs throughout their day.